

YOGA PRIVATE SESSIONS

YOGABOWL offers private sessions for students who want a focused, individual practice with their teacher. A private lesson can help you deepen your practice by exploring the fundamentals of yoga, specific breathing techniques, hands-on alignment adjustments and modifications for injuries or special populations. Sessions can be at your home, office, hotel room, park or the beach – anywhere. We offer both private and semi-private sessions.

PRIVATE YOGA TUITION – much like personal fitness training, is tailored to your specific needs. These sessions allow you to work privately with a yoga teacher to create a practice that makes sense for your body and your level of experience. While all yoga supports you physically, emotionally, and spiritually, private yoga lets you work on what makes sense for you—at your own pace. There are several reasons why you should add private sessions to your regular group practice. They're helpful if:

- You're a beginner and you want to get started in yoga without being overwhelmed or intimidated
- You want to go to the next level in your practice or work more in-depth
- You have injuries (back, knee, shoulder) or specific health concerns (Women's issues including fertility and pre/post natal, stress, arthritis, chronic headaches, insomnia)
- You want to work toward a specific physical goal such as increased flexibility, balance, or strength; target problem areas like tight hips or hamstrings or weak knees, or increase your mental focus in a particular sport or activity
- You want to add yoga to your weight-loss or strength-training program
- You want to cross-train for, and enhance your chosen sport
- You want to learn more about yourself – gaining awareness without judgment.
